

Chris Mickelsen, Director
Coastside County Water District
Board of Directors
Bay Area Water Supply & Conservation Agency

Chris Mickelsen was appointed by the Coastside County Water District (CCWD) to the Board of Directors of the Bay Area Water Supply and Conservation Agency. CCWD provides water to the residents of Half Moon Bay and several unincorporated communities, including El Granada, Miramar and Princeton.

He was elected to the CCWD board in November 2001 and currently serves as its Vice President. A lifelong resident of Half Moon Bay, Mickelsen continues his family's legacy of community service as a second generation member of the CCWD board. His father, Ronald Mickelsen, sat on the CCWD board in the 1980s.

The Mickelsen family owns and operates Half Moon Bay Nursery and Chris Mickelsen owns and operates the Harbor House bed-and-breakfast inn and corporate conference center in Princeton. He also is a director with the Half Moon Bay Chamber of Commerce.

Mickelsen holds an associate of arts degree in Business from the College of San Mateo. He welcomes the opportunity to effect progress for Bay Area water users as the Bay Area Water Supply and Conservation Agency ensures the rebuilding of the San Francisco regional water system.
